

GAME TIME FOR SEAHAWKS CHARITY

DEAN J. KOEPLER/The News Tribune

It's not quite a sleigh ride to Grandma's house, but 10-year-old Trenton Foss of Tacoma enjoys the festive escort and company of Shannon Mora, wife of Seahawk's head coach Jim Mora, and Sarah Auckland (carrying presents she helped Trenton pick out and wrap) at Mary Bridge Children's Hospital on Tuesday. The event, The Jim Mora Count On Me Family Foundation Holiday Shop, offered patients and some outpatients the opportunity to select two Christmas gifts for members of their family. Members of the Seattle Seahawks Women's Association along with the foundation and hospital volunteers then helped the kids wrap the gifts and write cards.
